Snugglepots' Preschool Excursion to The National Arboretum

Dear Families,

We are excited to offer our preschool children the opportunity to participate in an excursion to the National Arboretum. They will have the opportunity to look for recognisable landmarks and see how the city of Canberra includes many different suburbs that fit into the physical environment of hills, mountains and plains. Walking on the walking tracks will allow the children to experience the many different types of trees that make up the arboretum. The children will also have time to play at the very popular Pod playground.

A risk assessment has been completed and is available to view at the front office.
