From our Principal

Dear Families and Friends,

You can certainly tell that Autumn has arrived with all the leaves beginning to fall from our trees in the playground. The students have enjoyed building piles and playing in and with the leaves.

This week I want to focus on reading. Learning to read is an important life skill, and developing a love of reading is a wonderful way to learn about the world, the past, other ways of being, doing and thinking. One of the things we hold dear at Macquarie is developing a love of reading in our students. In junior primary, teachers explicitly teach reading strategies to students, model fluent reading, and provide guided and independent practice. In addition, our home reading program enables students to take easy texts home for further practice. These 'books' are designed to assist early readers practise the strategies they have learnt at school, however home reading isn't limited to these texts. We encourage students and families to engage with a variety of books, and we know that little people often develop favourites that they like to read, reread and read again. This is all part of the reading process. I would like to encourage you to read to and with your child as often as you can. Reading together is a wonderful opportunity to unpack a book, for your child to hear what a fluent reader sounds like and for you to connect with some of their daily learning.

There are no wrong ways to read together, however there are a few tips:

- ⇒ the reader holds the book;
- ⇒ use the pictures to help you; and
- ⇒ use the 3 Ps – pause (give learning readers 10 seconds to think), prompt (then tell – its not a test) and praise (I like the way you used the picture as a cue to find the word).

If you read for 10 minutes every day, by the time your child has finished year 2 they will have heard over 485 hours of reading! That would be amazing.

Office Hours

Monday — Friday
8.30am — 3.30pm

LOST PROPERTY

As the weather changes please don't forget to label new jumpers with your children's names so we can return lost items. We have also had a build up of lunch boxes and containers. There are some things on the table in the Front Office and in the basket in the Namadgi corridor.

BULLYING NO WAY!

Last Friday we participated in the National Day of Action Against Bullying and Violence. We are on a journey to develop our whole school expectations about how we operate at Macquarie and participation in these national events are part of how we raise awareness and conversations. Please talk to your children about their learnings in this area. Continued conversations and developing supportive networks are important protective factors for all students. I would like to especially thank Monique and Patrick for their co-ordination of this whole school event.

SUNSMART

We are still wearing sunsmart hats due to the high UV levels in Canberra. It is important that everyone has a sunsmart hat at school each day as we access the outdoor classroom regularly, and we want to keep people protected. If children don't have a hat at school they may be limited about where they can play as they are directed to shaded areas or the library.

 Years 1/2 – daily between 9-10 to listen to reading

 Is anyone interested in running an outdoor game during lunchtime? Any day from 1:00-1:40pm.

Please let us know when you're available by email, admin@macquarieps.act.edu.au or phone on 6142 1550.

Have a great week.

Community Notices

DEATH CAP MUSHROOMS

Death cap mushrooms have recently been found around Canberra. This is the first time they've been sighted in the ACT in 2019. Acting ACT Chief Health Officer Dr Kerry Coleman is reminding the community not to pick or eat any wild mushrooms found growing in and around the ACT region.

Death cap mushrooms are a deadly, poisonous fungi. In Canberra, the death cap mushroom often grows near established oak trees in warm, wet weather typically observed in late summer and autumn.

All parts of the mushroom are extremely poisonous and consuming even a small amount of the mushroom can be fatal. Cooking the mushroom does not make it safe. It can be extremely difficult for even experienced collectors to distinguish death cap mushrooms from edible mushrooms.

Anyone who suspects that they may have eaten death cap mushrooms should seek urgent medical attention at a hospital emergency department.

It is advised that people remain vigilant and remind friends and family who are visiting or new to Canberra not to pick or eat any wild mushrooms.

For safety, all mushrooms should be purchased from a reputable supplier.

If you see wild mushrooms in public areas, call Access Canberra on 13 22 81.

For more information, refer to the ACT Health Directorate Death Cap Mushrooms Factsheet <https://www.health.act.gov.au/sites/default/files/2018-09/Death%20Cap%20Mushrooms.pdf>
